

SS1 Arts Track: Government Diagnostic (Part 2)

Scope: Citizenship, Political Parties, Elections & Nigerian Constitutional Development
Questions 21–40

No.	Question & Options	Ans	Diagnostic Focus
21	Citizenship acquired because a person is born to citizen parents is citizenship by: A) Registration B) Birth C) Naturalization D) Honor	B	Citizenship.
22	One major duty of a responsible citizen is to: A) Refuse to obey laws B) Pay taxes C) Ignore elections D) Prevent others from voting	B	Civic Responsibility.
23	A political party is primarily formed to: A) Organize sports B) Capture and exercise political power C) Run private businesses D) Set examination questions	B	Political Parties.
24	The body responsible for conducting federal and state elections in Nigeria is: A) EFCC B) INEC C) CBN D) NPC	B	Electoral Institutions.
25	Universal Adult Suffrage means: A) Only men may vote B) Only educated citizens may vote C) Eligible adult citizens have the right to vote D) Only public servants may vote	C	Voting Rights.
26	A secret ballot is intended to: A) Reduce campaign costs B) Protect voter choice from intimidation C) Speed vote counting D) Increase political parties	B	Electoral Process.
27	The manifesto of a political party is: A) A list of party members B) The party's policies and programmes C) The national constitution D) Election results	B	Party Organization.
28	The highest law of a country is the: A) Criminal Code B) Constitution C) Party Manifesto D) Local Government Bye-law	B	Constitutional Law.
29	The Nigerian Constitution currently in operation came into effect in: A) 1960 B) 1963 C) 1979 D) 1999	D	Nigerian Constitutional History.
30	A referendum is best described as: A) A court judgment B) A direct vote by citizens on an important issue C) A parliamentary debate D) A political rally	B	Direct Democracy.
31	The right to freedom of expression is an example of a: A) Fundamental Human Right B) Directive Principle C) Traditional Privilege D) Party Policy	A	Human Rights.
32	Pressure groups differ from political parties because pressure groups: A) Contest elections B) Seek to influence government without taking political power C) Make laws D) Form the executive	B	Interest Groups.

No.	Question & Options	Ans	Diagnostic Focus
33	One major feature of democracy is: A) One-party rule B) Military control C) Periodic free and fair elections D) Suspension of the constitution	C	Democratic Principles.
34	The term 'Franchise' refers to the: A) Right to vote B) Right to own land C) Right to work abroad D) Right to join the army	A	Electoral Vocabulary.
35	Which level of government is closest to the people in Nigeria? A) Federal B) State C) Local Government D) ECOWAS	C	Federal Structure.
36	The principle of federal character is intended to promote: A) Regional domination B) Fair representation of diverse groups C) Military rule D) One-party government	B	National Integration.
37	An election conducted before the expiration of a government's tenure is called a: A) General Election B) By-election C) Referendum D) Census	B	Election Types.
38	The process of changing sections of the constitution is known as: A) Interpretation B) Amendment C) Impeachment D) Delegation	B	Constitutional Processes.
39	The independence of the judiciary helps to ensure: A) Political bias B) Fair and impartial justice C) Executive control of courts D) Party supremacy	B	Rule of Law.
40	Diagnostic Insight: Strong performance in Q24, Q29, Q32 and Q38 indicates readiness for advanced studies in Government, Law and Political Science.	-	Arts Pathway Readiness.