

SS1 Arts Track: Literature-in-English Diagnostic (Part 1)

Scope: Literary Terms, Genres & Figures of Speech

Questions 1 - 20

No.	Question & Options	Ans	Diagnostic Focus
1	The three main genres of Literature are: A) Fiction, Non-fiction, Biography B) Prose, Drama, Poetry C) Comedy, Tragedy, Tragic-comedy D) Novel, Short story, Play	B	Foundational Knowledge.
2	A long narrative story written in sentences and paragraphs is called: A) Poetry B) Prose C) Drama D) Sonnet	B	Genre Identification.
3	"The sun smiled down at us" is an example of: A) Metaphor B) Simile C) Personification D) Hyperbole	C	Figures of Speech (Imagery).
4	A play that ends on a sad note, usually with the death of the hero, is a: A) Comedy B) Farce C) Tragedy D) Satire	C	Drama Classification.
5	A comparison between two unlike things using "as" or "like" is a: A) Metaphor B) Simile C) Oxymoron D) Paradox	B	Comparison Devices.
6	The central idea or message of a literary work is the: A) Plot B) Setting C) Theme D) Conflict	C	Analytical Elements.
7	A poem consisting of fourteen lines is known as a: A) Ballad B) Lyric C) Sonnet D) Epic	C	Poetic Forms.
8	The location and time in which a story takes place is the: A) Atmosphere B) Setting C) Background D) Plot	B	Structural Elements.
9	A struggle between two opposing forces in a story is the: A) Resolution B) Conflict C) Climax D) Prologue	B	Narrative Logic.
10	"He is a lion in battle" is an example of: A) Simile B) Metaphor C) Euphemism D) Irony	B	Direct Comparison (Metaphor).
11	The use of a word whose sound suggests its meaning (e.g., "hiss," "bang") is: A) Alliteration B) Onomatopoeia C) Assonance D) Pun	B	Sound Devices.
12	A speech delivered by a character alone on stage to reveal their inner thoughts is a: A) Dialogue B) Monologue C) Soliloquy D) Aside	C	Drama Devices (Tough).
13	Giving a hint of what is to happen later in a story is called: A) Flashback B) Forshadowing C) Suspense D) Irony	B	Literary Techniques.
14	An exaggerated statement not meant to be taken literally is a: A) Litotes B) Hyperbole C) Satire D) Metonymy	B	Exaggeration (Hyperbole).

No.	Question & Options	Ans	Diagnostic Focus
15	The repetition of initial consonant sounds in a line of poetry is: A) Rhyme B) Alliteration C) Rhythm D) Stanza	B	Poetic Mechanics.
16	A character who opposes the main character (the hero) is the: A) Protagonist B) Antagonist C) Foil D) Persona	B	Characterization.
17	Literature that uses humor to criticize human folly or social vices is: A) Tragedy B) Satire C) Pastoral D) Ode	B	Literary Purpose.
18	"Bittersweet" and "Living death" are examples of: A) Paradox B) Oxymoron C) Synecdoche D) Metaphor	B	Contradictory Devices.
19	The person who tells the story in a novel is the: A) Author B) Poet C) Narrator D) Playwright	C	Point of View.
20	Diagnostic Tool: Students who fail Q3, Q10, and Q18 lack the abstract figurative reasoning required for Literature-in-English.	-	Analytical Aptitude.