

SS1 Arts Track: Literature-in-English Diagnostic (Part 2)

Scope: Literary Appreciation, Drama Devices & Critical Skills

Questions 21 - 40

No.	Question & Options	Ans	Diagnostic Focus
21	An 'Ode' is a type of poem written to: A) Mourn the dead B) Celebrate or praise a person or object C) Tell a humorous story D) Criticize the government	B	Poetry Classification.
22	The atmosphere or emotional coloring of a work of literature is its: A) Tone B) Mood C) Rhythm D) Style	B	Literary Appreciation.
23	A 'Dramatic Monologue' is a poem in which: A) Two people argue B) A speaker addresses a silent listener C) There is no rhyme D) The poet dies at the end	B	Poetic Narrative Techniques.
24	In drama, an 'Aside' is a remark made by a character that is: A) Heard by all characters on stage B) Intended only for the audience to hear C) Part of the prologue D) Shouted from behind the curtain	B	Drama Conventions.
25	The resolution or final outcome of the plot in a story is the: A) Climax B) Denouement C) Exposition D) Rising Action	B	Structural Plot stages.
26	"O death, where is thy sting?" is an example of: A) Paradox B) Apostrophe C) Irony D) Metonymy	B	Literary Devices (Address to the absent).
27	A story that has a second, deeper meaning beneath the surface story is an: A) Epilogue B) Allegory C) Anecdote D) Autobiography	B	Symbolic Narrative structures.
28	The pattern of rhymes at the end of each line of a poem is called: A) Metre B) Rhyme Scheme C) Foot D) Verse	B	Poetic Mechanics.
29	A 'Foil' is a character who: A) Heroically saves the day B) Contrasts with another character to highlight their traits C) Narrates the story D) Acts as the ghost of the hero	B	Character Analysis.
30	When the audience knows something that the characters on stage do not, it is: A) Verbal Irony B) Dramatic Irony C) Situational Irony D) Sarcasm	B	Complex Irony concepts.
31	An 'Elegy' is a poem written specifically to: A) Celebrate a wedding B) Lament or mourn for the dead C) Teach a moral lesson D) Describe nature	B	Thematic Poetry types.
32	The choice and use of words in writing is known as: A) Syntax B) Diction C) Phonetics D) Punctuation	B	Stylistic Appreciation.

No.	Question & Options	Ans	Diagnostic Focus
33	"The kettle is boiling" (referring to the water inside) is an example of: A) Synecdoche B) Metonymy C) Personification D) Hyperbole	B	Substitution Devices.
34	A recurring image, sound, or action that has symbolic significance in a story is a: A) Motif B) Theme C) Plot D) Setting	A	Symbolism & Patterns.
35	A 'Ballad' is a poem that: A) Has no meaning B) Tells a story in simple stanzas C) Is strictly about war D) Never rhymes	B	Narrative Poetry.
36	The transition in a story to an earlier event is a: A) Foreshadowing B) Flashback C) Suspense D) Prelude	B	Time Manipulation techniques.
37	What is the 'persona' in a poem? A) The real-life poet B) The character or voice created by the poet C) The main villain D) The person the poem is about	B	Poetic Perspective.
38	A 'Comedy' is primarily intended to: A) Make people cry B) Amuse and end happily C) Teach history D) Encourage violence	B	Drama Genres.
39	"Parting is such sweet sorrow" is an example of: A) Litotes B) Oxymoron C) Euphemism D) Pun	B	Contradictory Logic.
40	Diagnostic Insight: Correct answers in Q24, Q27, Q30, and Q34 signal a student with the analytical maturity required for Senior Literature.	-	Pathway Recommendation.